Re: AFL-CIO's Motion to Extend Comment Period

Dear Mr. Becker:

The Board has received the November 15, 2022 motion you submitted on behalf of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) requesting a 30-day extension of the due date for filing comments in response to the "Fair Choice and Employee Voice" Notice of Proposed Rulemaking that was published in the Federal Register on November 4, 2022. On November 29, 2022, the Board announced that it is extending the current deadlines for submission of comments and reply comments by 30 days. Accordingly, comments regarding the proposed rule must now be received by the NLRB on or before February 2, 2023, and reply comments must be received on or before February 16, 2023. You can find the details at <https://www.nrlb.gov/news-outreach/news-story/nrlb-extends-time-for-submitting-comments-on-the-proposed-fair-choice-and>, and further information about these extensions will be published in the Federal Register sometime this week. Given these extensions, the AFL-CIO's motion is denied as moot.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Nelson Carrasco
Associate Executive Secretary
