Re: Representation-Case Procedures: Election Bars; Proof of Majority Support in Construction Industry Collective-Bargaining Relationships, 87 FR 66890

Dear Ms. Rothschild:

On February 2, 2023, the National Right to Work Legal Foundation filed detailed and substantive comments regarding the above-reference rulemaking proposal. Foundation attorneys spent a significant amount of time analyzing the proposed rule and drafting those comments. The Foundation intends to submit reply comments to the many substantive comments filed by other organizations, among them the AFL-CIO, National Nurses United, United Steelworkers, Coalition for a Democratic Workplace, and the Chamber of Commerce. As it stands now, the Foundation must review over 90 comments and prepare its reply by the current due date of February 16, 2023.

This represents a formidable undertaking for our small staff of lawyers working on these important regulations. Other interested parties are faced with similar constraints.

Thus, we are hereby requesting that the deadline for the reply comments be extended by approximately a month, with the new due date being March 20, 2023. This will give all parties sufficient time to review the other parties' many substantive comments and respond appropriately. Thank you for your courtesies.

Sincerely,
/s/ Glenn M. Taubman
